

Pyxis Advisory Group welcomes Kait Dinunzio as Managing Director

September 6, 2024

Pyxis Advisory Group, a global industrial advisory firm, is pleased to announce the appointment of Kait Dinunzio as Managing Director. Dinunzio will lead Pyxis' global Organizational Change practice and contribute to the firm's mergers and acquisitions, digital transformation, and complex business and IT implementation services.

With nearly 20 years of experience in organizational leadership and change management, Dinunzio brings a wealth of expertise to Pyxis. Prior to joining Pyxis, she served as a Senior Partner at Helios Consulting, where she led strategic planning, change initiatives, and project management initiatives.

Based in Calgary, Canada, Dinunzio will also play a key role in expanding Pyxis' presence in the Canadian market. Her deep understanding of the corporate and public sector sectors will be invaluable in providing organizational leadership services to clients in the region.

"Kait's ability to consistently deliver complex and strategic transformational initiatives successfully for her clients both at the operating site and corporate levels really makes her unique. Her dedication to clients and 'doing what is right' for them has always been at the core of her approach to client service," said Stephen Bell, Partner of Pyxis Advisory Group. "Kait will be an excellent addition to the Pyxis leadership team. We are thrilled that she has joined us and are excited for the deep expertise she will bring to Pyxis' clients."

"I am thrilled to step into the role of Managing Director with Pyxis Advisory. This opportunity allows me to contribute to global change leadership, which is both a professional passion and a meaningful pursuit for me," said Kait Dinunzio. "The partners at Pyxis are not only highly accomplished, but also share a commitment to integrity and hard work that aligns with my own values. I am eager to collaborate with the talented team at Pyxis, bringing fresh perspectives to our work and continuing to achieve outstanding results for our clients, both familiar and new.”

Dinunzio’s appointment reinforces Pyxis’ commitment to delivering exceptional advisory services and creating unmatched development opportunities for its professionals.
