

KPMG India and ISACA Partner to Strengthen CMMI Adoption

October 7, 2024

KPMG India, a leading professional services firm, and ISACA, a global association of IT governance and cybersecurity professionals, today announced a strategic partnership to enhance the global adoption of the Capability Maturity Model Integration (CMMI) framework.

KPMG in India has been a steadfast ISACA Elite CMMI Transition Partner for over two decades, providing comprehensive CMMI consulting, training, and appraisal services. The new partnership elevates this collaboration to a strategic level, enabling both organizations to expand their reach and impact in the CMMI ecosystem.

“We are thrilled to deepen our partnership with ISACA,” said Rahul Turki, Partner Corporate Business Excellence, at KPMG in India. “By combining our deep industry expertise, global reach, and CMMI leadership, we can empower organizations worldwide to achieve their operational excellence goals through the effective implementation of CMMI.”

This strategic partnership offers several key advantages to KPMG in India clients:

- Access to ISACA resources and expertise: KPMG in India clients will benefit from expedited support and insights from ISACA’s global network.
- Expanded global reach: KPMG’s clients will gain access to CMMI services and support in new geographies.
- Enhanced CMMI solutions: The combined strengths of KPMG in India and ISACA will result in innovative and tailored CMMI solutions to address clients’ specific needs.

- Active participation in co-creating value in CMMI-based solutions through KPMG expertise.

“This strategic partnership reflects our Global Strategy in practice, helping organizations around the world improve their performance, reduce costs, and innovate in a structured and secure manner,” said Chris Dimitriadis, Chief Global Strategy Officer at ISACA.

“We are excited to establish a strategic partnership with KPMG in India and provide an opportunity for organizations to adopt the world-class CMMI framework coupled with the capability, quality, capacity, and reach of KPMG in India,” said Steve Mole, Vice President of Global Sales at ISACA.

By joining forces, KPMG in India and ISACA aim to drive innovation, accelerate digital transformation, and empower organizations to achieve operational excellence through the effective implementation of the CMMI framework.
