

Project Management Institute and Kyndryl Expand Strategic Alliance in South Asia, Empowering Project Excellence and Digital Transformation

March 21, 2025

The Project Management Institute (PMI), the world’s leading professional association for project management, and Kyndryl (NYSE: KD), the world’s largest IT infrastructure services provider, today announced a significant expansion of their strategic partnership within the South Asia region. This enhanced collaboration aims to accelerate project excellence, drive digital transformation, and bolster professional development within the rapidly evolving technology landscape of the region.

Building upon their existing global alliance, PMI and Kyndryl are deepening their commitment to empowering project professionals with the latest skills, knowledge, and resources. This expanded partnership will focus on delivering tailored training programs, collaborative initiatives, and knowledge-sharing platforms designed to address the unique challenges and opportunities present in the South Asian market.

“In today’s dynamic business environment, effective project management is critical for driving successful digital transformation,” stated a spokesperson for PMI South Asia. “Our strengthened partnership with Kyndryl will enable us to reach a wider audience of professionals, equipping them with the tools and expertise needed to navigate complex projects and achieve strategic objectives. By combining PMI’s globally recognized standards and certifications with Kyndryl’s deep industry expertise, we are creating a powerful synergy that will benefit organizations and individuals alike.”

Kyndryl, recognized for its expertise in managing complex IT infrastructure projects, will leverage PMI's comprehensive portfolio of certifications and resources to enhance the project management capabilities of its workforce. This collaboration will facilitate the development of standardized project management practices, improve project delivery efficiency, and foster a culture of continuous improvement within Kyndryl's South Asian operations.

"As Kyndryl continues to lead the way in enabling digital transformation for our clients, we recognize the importance of investing in our people and their professional development," said a Kyndryl South Asia executive. "Our enhanced partnership with PMI will provide our employees with access to world-class project management training and certifications, empowering them to deliver exceptional results for our clients. By aligning our project management practices with PMI's global standards, we are ensuring that we remain at the forefront of innovation and excellence."
