

One Year Strong: Celebrating You, the Heart of Project Management Global!

May 7, 2025

Wow! It's hard to believe a whole year has flown by since Project Management Global (PMG) first opened its digital doors. What a journey it's been, and it's all thanks to you, our incredible community of project professionals!

From day one, we envisioned PMG as more than just another website. We saw a need, a real hunger within the project industry for an independent voice, a place to amplify the amazing work done across our industry, celebrate the triumphs, articulate the ambitious future of our profession, and truly raise its profile on the global stage. For too long, the project profession has lacked a dedicated news platform to connect, inform, and inspire both the current and next generation of professionals.

In this past year, we've been buzzing with activity, driven by our commitment to you. We've proudly published over a thousand global news stories, from every corner of the globe. Shone a spotlight on hundreds of industry professionals, covering all industry sectors, new and traditional and crafted hundreds of insightful articles designed to support your career development, no matter where you are on your project management journey.

And you've responded in incredible numbers! We're absolutely thrilled that our weekly audience has ballooned to over 140,000 in just one year, with a phenomenal 100,000+ weekly clicks to our site, showing your deep engagement with the content. Your active participation fuels our passion!

We've also been keenly focused on the future, and our recently launched section in collaboration with Project Flux, dedicated to the impact of Digital and AI in project management, has provided exceptional insights into how our field is navigating the rapid advancements in AI technologies. Meanwhile, our core content areas covering essential career development strategies and highlighting the critical tools and methodologies of our trade continue to be a go-to resources.

But we're not stopping here! We're incredibly excited to announce two new initiatives designed to further empower you:

- Our brand-new Membership Programme is launching soon! Think of it as the ultimate toolkit for rapid career growth, packed with exclusive resources and opportunities. Join the waiting list here and find out more.
- We're also delighted to introduce our second weekly newsletter: PMG Jobs! This specialist publication will feature curated project management roles from around the world, opening up new career doors and removing those stubborn barriers to your success.

Our subscribers remain at the very heart of everything we do. Your feedback, your engagement, and your passion for project management inspire us every single day. Thank you for making PMG your trusted source for news, insights, and connection.

Here's to many more years of growth, learning, and celebrating the incredible power of project management, together!

The Team at Project Management Global.
